Favorites Capture Six Events Over the Bowie Track Course

By GEORGE B. MORRIS.
Bowle, Md., April 5.—It was strictly a avorite day at the Prince Georges
'sunty course this afternoon, when six at of seven favorites romped home in ront of their fields.

The Woodward handicap, at six fur-longs, was the feature of the afternoon's sport, and Flittergold, running in im-proved form, went to the front when he proved form, went to the front when he was ready and just cantered home, a length in front of Gloaming and Presumption. Flittergold covered the distance in 1:13 flat, a decided improvement over his last start.

Jabot easily landed the fifth number, and in so doing put over a "hot tip" that was sent broadcast. Miss Waters was second and River King third.

Good Counsel had no trouble in winning the first race, and easily disposed of Bob Redfield, who was played for a of Bob Redfield, who was played for a "sure thing," winning by one length, while Stellarina was two lengths behind. The prettiest finish of the day came in the third race, when Piquette and Anon came through the stretch head and head, the latter gaining the decision in the last jump, while Life, an extreme outsider, dropped into the third hole. Ancon was probably best, as he was blocked when he attempted to pass the rattling good race, the public choice getthig home by a length, while Mary Warren was second and Larkin, third.

Good Counsel, after winning the initial number, was boosted $200 over his entered price and sold to L. Garth. Summaries:

MARY ELLEN ALBINSON, who was suddenly called by God one year ago yesterday, April 6, 1915. Mass at the Sacred Heart and Immaculate Conception churches.

One predous to our hearts has goes.
The voice we loved is stilled.
The place made vacant in our home
Can newemore be filled.
Our Father in His wisdom called.

Our Father in His wistom called.
The boon His Love had given:
And though on earth the body lies.
The soul is safe in heaven. HER LOVING PARENTS AND BROTHERS.
